About This Save

Questions About This Save

Sure, we love Elvis, Beale Street blues and that old Marc Cohn song "Walking in Memphis." But when we think of Memphis' greatest contribution to modern culture, it's gotta be the 'cue. Fortunately for us, Rosey's BBQ in Jenkintown—and soon to be in Ambler—is bringing "Southern Taste, Up North" with their authentic Tennessee-style barbecue, ribs and more. And fortunately for you, dear reader, we're firing up a half-off Save that you can bring to either location for lunch or dinner.

From the chalkboard menu to the smoker you can see smoking your meal from the dining room, Rosey's is committed to the authentic 'cue experience. General Manager and head chef Jarvis Morris hails from Bluff City, where he worked at the famous Neely's Bar-B-Que, home of The Food Network stars the Neelys. And, true to Memphis-barbecue tradition, owner Chad Rosenthal has developed his own 16-spice, flavor-intense dry rub that makes his meats, well, as good as they are.

Whether you prefer them wet or dry, it's hard to go wrong with a rack of ribs, be they pork spare, baby back or beef short. The menu also features a number of other finely-barbecued meats, including chicken, turkey, sausage and brisket. Of course, this wouldn't be a true Southern restaurant without the staple sides, and—trust us—Rosey's slaw, greens, and meaty sweet and spicy BBQ beans do the trick. With house-made desserts, such as the banana pudding, rounding out the meal, now's the time to snap up this Save and head to Rosey's.

Reviews

These Yelpers think Rosey's is the real deal:

"Heaven. I love this place. Everything I've had has been great. It's actually a nice place to sit down now as well. They've really classed up the place since it was Abners. If you go with a group of people make sure to get their loaded fries."

"I'm a NC/TN boy and these ribs are done just right IMO, especially the dry ribs. The bones fall right out just like they should, and there are those great smoky tough bits on the edges along with the moist and tender meat... They've got a nice smoker and you can tell they care about what they're doing. These guys are the real deal."

"I don't have a huge palate for BBQ, but Rosey's does it just right with the dry rub and spices. The wings are fantastic, fall-off-the-bone quality that just melts in your mouth. Not too hot but not too mild, the taste is perfect."

"Mostly I'm impressed with Rosey's because the owners are changing the business, narrowing the focus to great Memphis BBQ and improving every day. I Love Rosey's BBQ."
