It takes only one bum-through-lounge-chair incident to realize that summer fun with flimsy plastic should be left to the beach balls. Prop up your flip-flopped feet and stay awhile with a little help from today's Save from Shared Production.

Here's the deal: $49 for a hardwood eucalyptus five-position sliding lounge chair

Summer lounging simplified: Soak up the sun from five different angles in the comfort of this sturdy lounge. Slide it up to the table, or drag it by the pool — then fold it for easy storage when the season's over.

Easy livin', easy conscience: The Forest Stewardship Council-certified Brazilian harvesters manufacture Eucalyptus grandis not only for its quick-growing, renewable properties but also its durability and natural resistance to everyday wear and tear. That means you'll enjoy your hardwood chairs many years after the forest has grown back.
