About This Save

You've extracted so many spaghetti noodles from the depths of the highchair that the sight of Prego makes you nauseous. We think the whole family — especially you — deserves to take Italian night outside the house with today's Save: $20 for $40 worth of traditional favorites from Via Veneto.

Here's How Today's Save Works: We've partnered with Weforia to negotiate this great deal. Simply click "Buy Now" to purchase the Save. Click on the "My Saves" tab in your Eversave account to locate your Save voucher, print it out and bring it with you when you dine in for lunch or dinner (not valid on takeout or on holidays).

This intimate Peterson Park spot is the place to go for hearty (read: very large) portions of traditional Italian cuisine without pretention. From the complimentary bruschetta to your last spoonful of tiramisu, you'll enjoy the attentive-but-not-intrusive service which keeps patrons coming back to this family-run trattoria.

Speaking of family, Chef Tony Barbanente still uses his grandmother's recipes to create his house-made pastas, seafood specialties and more. The lengthy menu boasts something for everyone at your table, from perfectly prepared Italian standards to more unique specialties, such as pumpkin ravioli in tomato and goat cheese sauce ($15.95). Though it's hard to go wrong, we'll recommend the petto di pollo alla senape ($16.95) — sautéed chicken breast with shallots, brandy, mustard and cream—and the gnocchi ripieni ($15.95) — ricotta and spinach stuffed gnocchi in a creamy tomato sauce.

As the weather starts to get nicer (fingers crossed!), al fresco dining is the way to go. But whether you're outside or enjoying the cozy indoors, mom and dad can relax with a glass of wine, grappa or a martini — especially since though the whole family has enjoyed a nice Italian meal, the high-chair cleaning isn't their responsibility tonight.
